

Revocation of Consent

IAC 226.540

A parent has the right to revoke consent for special education educational services and related services at any time. The parent may revoke special education services either in writing or orally. The district must make sure the parent understands if consent for special education services are revoked, the district MUST revoke all services. The student will be considered a general education student and not entitled to any services listed on the IEP. The district must provide documentation regarding parent revocation of consent for special education and related services. The Revocation of Consent document can be found in EmbraceIEP under Notice and Consent.
